Chanukah on Planet Matzah Ball. 40 mins. (Planet Matzah Ball Ser.). (J). Age: 4-10. (ps-5). Video Released Nov. 2003. Millions of miles away, out in deep space on a giant Matzah Ball, lives a family of funny, furry aliens who just happen to be Jewish. Sadly though, most Jewish traditions on Planet Matzah Ball have been lost.One day, when a menorah traveling through space happens to crash land on Planet Matzah Ball, the curious Jewish aliens are puzzled by what this menorah is for and what you put into all those little holes! Crayons? Toothbrushes? Hot dogs?Oogy, the nine-year-old member of the alien family, is determined to find out more about this menorah. So he looks through his super powered telescope and observes four kids having a Chanukah party in Cleveland, Ohio. As Oogy watches, a clever, infomative story unfolds. Oogy discovers how Chanukah began, he learns about potato pancakes?and every- thing he ever wanted to know about dreidels. He even finds out why Pigstachio ice cream would never be kosher! But what about the menorah?? Will he find out how to use it before the eighth night of Chanukah?! With puppets, animation and music, this zany story of Chanukah and all its wonderful traditions is cleverly wrapped around original songs such as "The Latke Boogie Woogie," and wacky characters such as a dreidel who calls herself "Spinderella."Look for the companion video "The Seder on Planet Matzah Ball". Chasing Lewis & Clark Across America: A 21st Century Aviation Adventure. Travel And Travel Guides. Aviation And Aeronautics. Photography. Color. 43 mins. Home. Video Released Apr. 2006. Photographer Ron Lowery. Climb into the cockpit of a flying green canoeEnjoy the breathtaking beauty of the Lewis & Clark trail from a different perspective?a aerial view?as you float over the same epic route that the Corps of Discovery traveled 200 years ago.Carefully selected photographs from the book project Chasing Lewis & Clark Across America are presented in a slide show format. These selected images, set to inspiring music, show the beauty and grandeur of the trail from an open-cockpit plane as a photographer and writer retrace this historic route. From their ?canoe in the sky? you will see images of the praine evolving into badlands, then shifting into mountains like the view through a kaleidoscope. In addition to the stunning bird?s eye view pictures, the DVD includes a behind-the-scenes peek into construction of the plane, research of the trip and life on the trail.From the virgin wilderness that Lewis and Clark discovered, to cities with monolithic creations by man, this collection of photos set to inspiring music, is like a tightly woven tapestry of America. Their story and visual feast of photographs set to inspiring music?with its rich blend of American history, art culture and a touch of romance, will nourish your patriotic soul. Windsock Media, LLC. Chelation: What's New for Cancer & Heart Disease. (1990). Medicine. Cancer. Heart. 30 mins. Featuring James Julian. Chelation is a chemical process whereby one metallic ion is employed to "claw" a second metallic ion away from the environment in which it resides. In medicine, this process is commonly used to treat persons contaminated by toxic metals. More controversial, however, is the use of chelation therapy to treat atherosclerosis, Alzheimer's disease, & a variety of other conditions. Advocates say that most by-pass surgeries & toxic drugs can be avoided with this relatively simple procedure. Malibu Video. VHS. (Order #: 133) $24.95.

Chelyabinsk: The Most Contaminated Spot on the Planet. (1994). Science-Environmental Studies. History, Russian. Color. 60 mins. Video Released Apr. 1994. Directed by Slawomir Grunberg. Contribution by Robert Rieger, Slava Paperno, Lesli LaRocco. Produced by Slawomir Grunberg. This is a journey into the horror of nuclear contamination which occurred in the city of Cheiyabinsk, Russia where an atomic weapons complex called "Mayek" was built. For over six years, the Mayak complex systematically dumped radioactive waste into the Techa River - the only source of water for the 24 villages which lined its banks. The camera interviews people from all walks of life - simple farmers, teachers, environmental activists & officials who represent the "Mayak" complex. This film is a cautionary tale about the dangers of allowing a government to put military secrets above people. LogTV, Ltd. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-9700707-0-8(5)) $29.95.

(Order #: 8774) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Central Nervous System & Brain. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Features the primary components of the nervous system. Identifies the main structures of the brain & their roles in controlling body systems & maintaining homeostasis. Examines the effects of physical injury, chemical imbalances & drug usage. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8766) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Ear - Hearing & Balance. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Highlights the structures & functions & how sound waves are transmitted. Examines the role of the inner ear & provides examples of various technologies which help people with hearing impairments to communicate. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8769) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Eye - Vision & Perception. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Highlights the structures & functions & illustrates how visual sensory receptors relay messages to the brain. Describes visual disorders, along with corrective lenses & techniques for treatment. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8768) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Hypothalamus & Pituitary Glands. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Shows how the pituitary & hypothalamus work together to control many body functions. Highlights the homeostatic feedback mechanism involved with regulating water balance in the body. Examines the use of growth hormone. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8771) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Neuroendocrine System. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Compares the nervous & endocrine systems by describing how each responds to a number of different situations - physical activity, body temperature, eating & stress. Summarizes the regulation of blood glucose & fluid levels in the body. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8775) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Pancreas. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Explores the many roles of the pancreas & its hormonal secretions. Illustrates how insulin & glucagon help regulate blood glucose levels in the body. Reviews the discovery of insulin & discusses current research on diabetes. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8773) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Peripheral Nervous System. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Illustrates how the human body senses & responds to its internal & external environments. Describes the structures & functions & examines current research on nerve regeneration. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8767) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical & Electrochemical Control Systems in Humans: The Thyroid Gland. Science-Biology. 29 mins. (Biologix Ser.: Unit 1). (YA). Uses drama to reveal the function & structure. Demonstrates the role of thyroxine in regulating metabolic rate. Presents disorders that may result when it does not function properly & describes various techniques for treatment. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8772) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Chemical Bonding. Science-Chemistry. Color. 18 mins. (Chemistry Ser.: The Standard Deviants Core Curriculum). Public performance. Section one makes sense of Lewis structures and resonance structures while addressing the Octet Rule and its exceptions. In section two, "Professor Einsteinium" and elements of Atomic Mass University AMU study electronegativity and ionic and covalent bonding, while section three focuses on bond energy and reaction enthalpy. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DFP10129) $69.95.

Chemical Bonding. (1998). Science-Chemistry. 18 mins. (Physical Science Ser.). CC (J). Age: 10-13. (gr. 5-8). Introduces the nature of chemical bonding & the characteristics of atoms that allow them to form bonds. The concepts of electron arrangement are highlighted, giving a foundation upon which to understand bonding. Ionic bonds, covalent bonds, & metallic bonds are addressed, & more. Followed by a ten-question quiz. United Learning. VHS, Incl. tchr's. guide, 6 Blackline Masters. (Order #: 10677VA) $95.00.

Chemical Bonding. 18 mins. (YA). Video Released Jan. 2000. Produced by Cerebellum. Films Media Group. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-1338-8(8)) $69.95.

Chemical Bonding. 18 mins. (Chemistry: the Standard Deviants(R) Core Curriculum Ser.). (YA). Video Released Jan. 2000. Produced by Cerebellum. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-6493-9(4)) $69.95.

Chemical Bonding. (YA). Produced by Video Education Australasia Pt. Films Media Group. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-0808-7(2)) $325.95.

Chemical Bonding. (Chemical Bonding Ser.). (YA). Produced by Video Education Australasia Pt. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-6097-9(1)) $325.95.

Chemical Bonding & Atomic Structure. (1983). Science-Chemistry. 23 mins. (Chemistry Ser.). (YA). Age: 12-17. (gr. 7-12). Coronet, The Multimedia Co. (MTI Film & Video). Laser. (ISBN: 978-0-388-04391-2(1)) $165.00.

Chemical Bonding & Atomic Structure: Second Edition. (1983). Science-Chemistry. 23 mins. (Chemistry Ser.). (YA). Age: 12-17. (gr. 7-12). Coronet, The Multimedia Co. (MTI Film & Video). VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-388-07043-7(9), Order #: 60282) $59.00; VHS, Spanish Version. (ISBN: 978-0-388-07037-6(4)) $59.00; 3/4" U-Matic. $59.00.

Chemical Bonding Series, 4 cass.; set. Color. 80 mins. Public performance. Provides a comprehensive introduction to the chemical bonding processes. Using computer-generated models and examples from everyday life, illustrates the principles of bonding relevant to high school and college chemistry courses. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF7743) $325.00.

Chemical Carcinogenesis: The Staging Theory. Medicine. Color. (J). Age: 15-UP. (gr. 10 up). The initiation & subsequent stages of cancer growth are concisely illustrated. Viewers are first given a brief animated overview of normal cell development & differentiation, followed by a clear description of the aberrations known to occur when DNA or its regulatory mechanisms are damaged. CRM Learning. VHS. $99.00; 3/4" U-Matic. $99.00; VHS. $99.00; 3/4" U-Matic. $99.00.

Chemical Change & Temperature. (1968). Science-Chemistry. Color. 15 mins. Explores inductively the role of temperature in promoting combustion. Many facts about chemical changes can be explained by using the idea that substances are made of atoms & molecules, which react when they collide. Phoenix Films & Video. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7919-7135-2(X)); Beta.

Chemical Cycles in the Biosphere. (1994). Science-Chemistry. 18 mins. (YA). Video Released Sep. 1994. Bill Stonebarger. Learn how chemicals cycle within the biosphere. Emphasized are the oxygen-carbon dioxide cycle, the nitrogen cycle, the water cycle & how toxic chemicals affect the biosphere. Hawkhill Assocs., Inc. VHS, Incl. tchr's. guide; performance rights. (ISBN: 978-1-55979-081-9(4), Order #: 924) $79.00.

Chemical Dependence at Home. Drugs And Drug Addiction. 15 mins. (Drug Wise Ser.). (J). Alerts the viewer to chemical dependency's destructive effects on family members & specifies what family members may do to help themselves recover from those effects. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. (Order #: E38) $29.95.

Chemical Dependency: A Disease of Denial. Substance Abuse. 20 mins. (Foundations of Recovery Ser.). Explains the disease concept of chemical dependency. Hazelden Publishing & Educational Services. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-89486-878-8(0), Order #: 5854H) $225.00.

Chemical Dependency: Risks Throughout a Lifetime, 6 vols. (1990). Alcoholism. Drugs And Drug Addiction. 105 mins. Most chemical dependency videos focus on treatment of people who are already addicted to drugs or alcohol. Non-abusers often fail to see the relevance of these programs. This series, by contrast, features "average," non-dependent people to whom viewers can relate. It helps them examine their own behavior - & that of family members - for patterns that suggest susceptibility to drug or alcohol abuse, & suggests ways to seek help. "Chemical Dependency: Risks Throughout a Lifetime" was produced by Stanford University specifically for college & other health programs, public health departments, hospital health promotion & community health education programs. Pyramid Media. VHS, Incl. discussion guide. (ISBN: 978-1-55981-175-0(7)) $534.00.

Chemical Diversity: Application of Computational Approach. (1995). Science-Chemistry. Color. 120 mins. American Chemical Society. VHS. (Order #: V8100) $225.00.

Chemical Diversity: Syn Tech of Combinatorial Chemistry. (1995). Science-Chemistry. Color. 120 mins. American Chemical Society. VHS. (Order #: V8000) $225.00.

Chemical, Electrical & Nuclear Energy. Science-General. Color. 18 mins. (Energy Ser.: Nature's Power Source). Public performance. Behind all forms of energy are scientific laws & concepts that allow them to do work. What are they, & how do they shape the ways in which energy is used? Investigate the pros & cons of chemical, electrical & nuclear energy, addressing their applications to industrial, commercial, residential & transportation needs. The difference between potential & inetic energy, the importance of conservation & the environmental impact of energy generation are explained as well. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF10700) $79.00.

Chemical, Electrical, & Nuclear Energy. (Energy: Nature's Power Source Ser.). Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-4213-4213-9(8)) $79.95.

Chemical Elements: An Introduction to the Periodic Table. (1997). Science-Chemistry. Color. 9 mins. (Concepts in Chemistry Ser.). (YA). G. Video Released Oct. 1997. Directed by J. William Allgood. Contribution by Mark Viner. Students consider ways that elements might relate to each other. Periodic table periods & groups are introduced. Media Design Assocs., Inc. VHS. (UPC: 440015) $70.00; Laser. (Order #: LD450020) $545.00.

Chemical Engineering for Chemists, 4 cass. (1980). Science-Chemistry. Color. 268 mins. American Chemical Society. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-8412-1216-9(3), Order #: V-0800) $1600.00.

Chemical Engineering Problems: University of Delaware, 27 cass. (1998). Technology. Contribution by Anthony Beris. The application of mathematical methods to the solution of chemical engineering problems. The use of ordinary & partial differential equations & of difference equations in fluid flow, heat transfer, diffusion & other unit operations. Prereq: CHEG443 Mass Transfer Operations & MATH302 Ordinary Differential Equations. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, Set; incl. lecture notes. $3900.00, Rental 1300.00 VHS.; VHS. Rental 1300.00 VHS.;.

Chemical Engineering Thermodynamics, 25 cass.; set. (1999). Science-Chemistry. Contribution by University of Delaware Staff. Instructed by Stanley Sandler. Applications of classical & molecular thermodynamics to industrial problems in chemical & phase equilibrium. Topics include non-ideal solutions, high pressure systems, complex reaction equilibria, generalized correlations & equations of state. Prerequisites: Chemical Engineering Thermodynamics & Physical Chemistry. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $3900.00, Rental 1300.00.

Chemical Equations. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-4213-3167-6(5)) $89.95.

Chemical Equations & Atomic & Molecular Mass. Science-Chemistry. Color. 20 mins. (Chemistry Ser.: The Standard Deviants Core Curriculum). Public performance. Section one presents the Law of Conservation of Mass and how to balance equations. Section two explains the difference between the mass number and atomic mass, what an isotope is and how to work with atomic mass units to find the average atomic mass. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DFP10124) $69.95.

Chemical Equations & Atomic & Molecular Mass. 20 mins. (YA). Video Released Jan. 2000. Produced by Cerebellum. Films Media Group. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-1333-3(7)) $69.95.

Chemical Equations & Atomic & Molecular Mass. 20 mins. (Chemistry: the Standard Deviants(R) Core Curriculum Ser.). (YA). Video Released Jan. 2000. Produced by Cerebellum. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-6488-5(8)) $69.95.

Chemical Equilibrium. (YA). Produced by Tv Ontario. Films Media Group. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-0220-7(3)) $299.95.

Chemical Equilibrium Series, 6 cass.; set. Science-Chemistry. Color. 60 mins. CC Public performance. Uses analogy and computer animation to introduce chemistry students to the concepts of chemical reactions. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF3595) $279.00.

Chemical-Free Graduation. Adolescence. Color. 23 mins. (YA). Demonstrates to teenagers that "good times" do not have to include the use of drugs & alcohol. An actual situation where teenagers put together a chemical-free graduation party & overcame peer pressures is featured. Community Intervention, Inc. VHS. (Order #: A173VCF) $95.00.

Chemical Hair Relaxing-Stdvideo #5-Soft Curl Permanent. Video Released Oct. 1999. Delmar Cengage Learning (Milady Publishing Co.). 8mm. (ISBN: 978-1-56253-599-5(4)) $84.95 Dist(s): CENGAGE Learning.

Chemical Hazard Indentification & Training. (1991). Safety Education. 19 mins. Long Island Productions, Inc. VHS. (Order #: 145) $99.00.

The Chemical Kids. 60 mins. Directed by Poul-Eric Heilbuth, Hans Bulow. Contains many alarming facts about the man-made chemicals we inject in our food and water. Children are most affected - damaged physically and mentally by the fish their mothers ate during pregnancy, by eating too much fish or meat themselves, or by drinking water drawn too close to waste dumps. We are just beginning to understand the subtle ways in which such chemicals affect children's ability to learn, how they influence their social behavior, how they impair human ability to fend off disease and to reproduce. Filmakers Library. VHS. $350.00, Rental 75.00.

Chemical Laboratory Techniques, 3 cass. (1982). Science-Chemistry. Color. 135 mins. American Chemical Society. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-8412-1211-4(2), Order #: V-1600) $1440.00.

Chemical-Physical Restraint Avoidance in Long Term Care. (1996). Medical Education. 59 mins. National Technical Information Service, U.S. Dept. of Commerce. VHS. (Order #: AVA19918VNB2AIF) $60.00.

Chemical Protective Clothing. Safety Education. 29 mins. Videolearning Systems, Inc. VHS. $395.00.

Chemical Reactions. Science-Chemistry. Color. 15 mins. (Experiments in Chemistry Ser.). Group. Fourteen reactions, four with explicit instructions, all designed to teach safety awareness. Educational Images, Ltd. VHS, Incl. guide. (Order #: FV 1367V) $29.95.

Chemical Reactions. Science-Chemistry. Color. 23 mins. Public performance. Variety of different chemical reactions: how rusting occurs; how detergents clean, whiten & soften & glue, yogurt & other products composed of soft matter, the subject of much industrial research. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF5615) $89.95.

Chemical Reactions. (1998). Science-Chemistry. 18 mins. (Physical Science Ser.). CC (J). Age: 10-13. (gr. 5-8). Explores the characteristics of chemical reactions by analyzing some simple everyday chemical reactions common to students. Introduces chemical equations & shows how to balance them. Synthesis, decomposition, & replacement reactions are described. The energy dynamics of chemical reactions is conveyed, while explaining endothermic & exothermic reactions. By studying the rates of chemical reactions (kinetics), students will investigate the influence that concentration, surface area, temperature, & catalysts have on an actual reaction. Followed by a ten-question quiz. United Learning. VHS, Incl. tchr's. guide, 6 Blackline Masters. (ISBN: 978-1-56007-776-3(X), Order #: 10678VA) $95.00.

Chemical Reactions. (1997). Science-Chemistry. Color. 10 mins. (Concepts in Chemistry Ser.). (YA). G. Video Released Oct. 1997. Directed by J. William Allgood. Contribution by Mark Viner. Chemical reactions involve changing substances into new substances. Students look at combination, decomposition & displacement chemical reactions. Media Design Assocs., Inc. VHS. (UPC: 440025) $70.00.

Chemical Reactions. Science-General. Science-Chemistry. Color. 20 mins. (Mr. Wizard's World Science Video Library: Vol. 19). (J). G. Don Herbert. "Mr. Wizard's World Science Video Library" is made up of sequences from Mr. Wizard's World that have been selected specifically for their usefulness to the teacher. The activities were chosen for their educational value & application to the typical science curriculum. The segments were then organized around a central theme that is the subject of the video cassette. The concepts illustrated progress from relatively simple to more complex. A unit can be shown to introduce a subject, emphasize a concept, substitute for a difficult demonstration, or as a reward at the end of a lesson. Tape 19 - "Chemical Reactions" includes: Homemade Hydrogen; Homemade Fire Extinguisher; Oven Cleaner & Aluminum Reaction; "Burning" Sulfer; Cleaning Silver. Mr. Wizard Institute. VHS. $49.50.

Chemical Reactions & Air Pollution. Science-Environmental Studies. Color. 20 mins. (Scientific Eye Ser.). (YA). Viewers will learn criteria that must be met for a chemical reaction to take place, & how burning the wrong fuel can create harmful pollutants. A visit to a factory that is trying to create a smokeless fuel by burning the sulfur out of coal is provided. United Learning. VHS. (Order #: J4914) $195.00; Beta. (Order #: J4914) $195.00; 3/4" U-Matic. (Order #: J4914) $195.00, Rental 50.00 Three day.

Chemical Reactions & Phases of Matter, 2 shows. Science-Chemistry. Color. (Bill Nye the Science Guy: Earth Science Curriculum Set Ser.). CC Made-for-Video. Hosted by Bill Nye. Walt Disney Home Video. VHS. (Order #: 68A32VL00) $49.95.

Chemical Reactions; Phases of Matter, 2 segments on 1 cass. Science-Chemistry. Color. 52 mins. (Bill Nye the Science Guy Physical Science II Ser.). CC (J). Made-for-TV. Video Released Sep. 1995. Hosted by Bill Nye. Discover how everything is made of chemicals. Guest Candace Cameron and Bill show that fire is actually a chemical reaction. In the second segment, tour a steel mill and learn that matter exists in three phases: solids, liquids and gases. Disney Educational Productions. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-89625-127-4(6), Order #: 68A32VL00) $49.95.

Chemical Safety in the Laboratory. (1991). Safety Education. Color. 40 mins. AIMS Multimedia. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-8068-8301-4(4), Order #: 8301) $395.00.

Chemical Safety in the Laboratory. Safety Education. Color. 22 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Jan. 1992. This program illustrates the four potential avenues of exposure to chemical health hazards & demonstrates the proper integration of engineering controls, personal protective equipment, & safe work practices in order to prevent exposure to hazardous chemicals in the laboratory. Tel-A-Train, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-56355-321-9(X)) $465.00; 3/4" U-Matic. (ISBN: 978-1-56355-322-6(8)) $465.00; VHS, wbk. ed. (ISBN: 978-1-56355-323-3(6)) $3.50.

Chemical Tests. Science-General. Science-Chemistry. Color. 20 mins. (Mr. Wizard's World Science Video Library: Vol. 18). (J). G. Don Herbert. "Mr. Wizard's World Science Video Library" is made up of sequences from Mr. Wizard's World that have been selected specifically for their usefulness to the teacher. The activities were chosen for their educational value & application to the typical science curriculum. A unit can be shown to introduce a subject, emphasize a concept, substitute for a difficult demonstration, or as a reward at the end of a lesson. Tape 18 - "Chemical Tests" includes: What Makes a Candle Burn?; Testing for Hydrogen; Kitchen Chromatography; Cabbage Juice Indicator; Starch Iodine Test; Iodine Clock Reaction. Mr. Wizard Institute. VHS. $49.50.

Chemical Warfare. (1988). Arms And Armaments. Color. (Nightline Ser.). NR. Hosted by Ted Koppel. MPI Home Video. VHS. (Order #: MP8058) $14.98.

The Chemically Dependent Nurse, 3 vols. (1995). Substance Abuse. Nursing. Color. 67 mins. (C). The three programs of this series have several objectives in mind - to show student & graduate nurses the specious thinking process that leads to chemical dependency in the hope that it will help prevent such addiction; to illustrate the devastating effects of drugs on the chemically dependent individual; & to help others make wise decisions when confronted with an addicted co-worker. Concept Media, Inc. VHS, Set. (ISBN: 978-1-56437-384-7(3), Order #: 633) $700.00; 3/4" U-Matic, Set. (ISBN: 978-1-56437-385-4(1)) $700.00.

Chemicals & Personal Hygiene. (1989). Safety Education. 18 mins. Long Island Productions, Inc. VHS. (Order #: 618) $99.00.

Chemicals from NaCl, Vol. 1. Science-Chemistry. Color. 20 mins. (Chemistry in Action Ser.). Public performance. Because of its wide availability, NaCl is the starting material for many inorganic chemicals. Salt is seen being pumped as a brine solution and into a chemical plant where chlorine and sodium hydroxide are produced by electrolysis. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF1110) $89.95; 3/4" U-Matic. (Order #: AD-1110) $249.00, Rental 75.00.

Chemicals from NaCl, Vol. 2. Science-Chemistry. Color. 20 mins. (Chemistry in Action Ser.). Public performance. Sodium metal is formed by electrolysis of a sodium chloride-calcium chloride molten mixture and is isolated at the cathode of the cell as a liquid. This product is extremely reactive; it must be handled very carefully and packaged in an inert oil, free from air and moisture. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF1111) $89.95; 3/4" U-Matic. (Order #: BQA1111) $249.00, Rental 75.00.

Chi Kung for Health: Five Short Form Meditations, Flying Phoenix Celestial Healing Chi-Kung, Vol. 5. Color. 53 mins. mins. G. (Narrated: English). Video Released Aug. 2003. Author Terence P. Dunn. Instructional videotape teaching Chi-Kung (Qigong), Chinese meditative exercises cultivating vital life force ("Chi") for health, rejuvenation and longevity. In Volume Five, Terry Dunnn teaches five short form standing exercises that require only 90 seconds each to perform. Very basic and easy to learn, these exercises impart advanced energy effects. Each exercise is comprised of a breath-control sequence and a series of simple and natural circular movements of the upper body and limbs. They are part of the 400-year old Flying Phoenix Chi Kung system, attributed to legendary Taoist yogin Feng Tao Teh of Ehrmei Shan. For best results, practice of Volumes One and Three is highly recommended before starting this program. Regular practice of this Chi-Kung regimen imparts profound states of physical relaxation, and mental clarity, and emotional calm. Long term practice brings all organic functions under the regulation of the subconscious mind. Good for all ages. Easy to learn, easy to retain, exercises are fast-acting with tangible, energizing effects. Utilized by Cardio-Thoracic Surgery Groups in major medical centers for patient recovery. Taught by Terry Dunn to professional athletes, including Los Angeles Lakers. Filmed in scenic Badwater, Death Valley. Original music score by Robert Scott Thompson. Interarts Productions, Inc. VHS. The Chinese, 26 cass. China. 780 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. Share a rare insiders' view of China, a nation struggling to blend ancient tradition with modern reality. "The Chinese" takes you from the countryside, where ancestral customs & beliefs survive, to Tiananmen Square, where political tensions erupted in apocalyptic violence. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS, Set. (Order #: E515) $1500.00; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 1: Reform in Crisis: The Aftermath of Tiananmen. China. Political Science. Sociology. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In this program, the impact of the reform movement of the 1980s is evaluated along with the growing influence of Western ideas, financing, & technology. The reasons for the bloody end to the policy of "openness" in the summer of 1989 are also explored. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 2: Overview of Chinese History. China. History, Far Eastern. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The importance of Imperial rule in Chinese culture is explored along with its role in the continuity of 5,000 years of Chinese history. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 3: The Legacy of Mao Zedong. China. History, Far Eastern. Cookery-Chinese. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. This program assesses the political legacy of Mao Zedong, who continued the Imperial tradition over this vast nation, but with the intent of creating a classless society that would destroy many Chinese traditions. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 4: Man & Nature in China. China. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. This program deals with the special relationship Chinese have with food in a country that often has had less than it needs to survive. The techniques used in raising food, the ritual involved in its preparation, the new "responsibility system" in the countryside, & the sophisticated eating habits of the Cantonese are examined. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 5: Food & Feasting in China. China. Agriculture. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The bleak farms & eating habits of the North & Central China are examined along with the critical role of rivers & their massive irrigation projects erected over the centuries (some of which have allowed Sichuan Province to become the affluent bread basket of China). Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 6: Introduction to Traditional Chinese Beliefs. China. Political Science. Buddhism. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The role of Communist Party teachings & the central government's control over the party is explored in the context of Buddhist & Daoist traditions that keep religious beliefs strong in an officially atheistic country. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 7: Communist Ideology after Mao. China. Political Science. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. This program considers the Cultural Revolution's impact on China & the reaction to it which elevates production & profit to a new importance, while continuing the Communist political education of the young. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 8: Social Control in Chinese Society. China. Law. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In exploring the interaction between the individual & the state in China, this program focuses on the legal system, which even in its contemporary form under Communist rule, is largely shaped by past influences. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 9: China's Legal System. China. Law. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. China's history shows a popular disdain for litigation. This program explores contemporary attitudes that illustrate the preference for private mediation as the preferred method of conflict resolution. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 10: Marriage & the Chinese Family. China. Women's Studies. Marriage. Family. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. This program examines the role of women in China since the changes instituted by the Communist Party takeover in 1949. In particular, the marriage rite & child-rearing are scrutinized in the context of Chinese traditions that give social supremacy to males. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 11: The Status of Women in China. China. Women's Studies. Sociology. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In the small villages of China, tradition dies hard when it comes to marriage & the family's critical role in the long-established rituals associated with the ceremony & the new loves of the young couple. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 12: Social Organization in China. China. Sociology. Family. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The basic social structure of China is examined by looking closely at the family unit & the close-knit neighborhood, including the important role played by the elderly in Chinese society. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 13: Welfare & Health Care in China. China. Sociology. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The state institutions of China are explored - those institutions that take over for the family & neighborhood when someone commits a serious crime, or is seriously ill - along with how such groups make decisions & how the individual willingly accepts such decisions. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 14: Sources of Social Conflict in Chinese Society. China. Divorce. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In this program, a neighborhood mediating committee (there are 800,000 in China) tries to get an estranged husband & wife to stop divorce proceedings - apparently caused by the birth of a female child. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 15: Conflict Resolution in Contemporary Chinese Society. China. Sociology. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. As the government seeks to end the Chinese tradition of large families (that ensure the care of older family members) by demanding one-child families, this program examines how the policy is enforced at the neighborhood level. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 16: Peasant Life in China. China. Sociology. Agriculture. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In many ways, the life of the peasant has changed very little over the centuries. This program examines daily life for China's rural population & its agricultural work, still a highly labor-intensive pursuit. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 17: Economic Reform in Rural China. China. Sociology. Economics. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. Under Communism, we have seen many changes occur in the economic & social sectors. And in a growing way, the government has been highly involved in fostering changes in the countryside such as public education, electrification & medical care. This program shows the results of these changes on the peasantry. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 18: Industrial Life in China. China. Sociology. Political Science. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In this program, the industrial life of China is explored, including how the Communist Party handles factory & mine management & how jobs & homes are inherited by the younger members of a family. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 19: Industrial Reform in Contemporary China. China. Sociology. Political Science. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The industrial workers, China's elite class under Communism, was guaranteed complete security for life until the 1980s when the "iron rice bowl" system was replaced by the "responsibility system." Now the most productive workers reap the larger rewards. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 20: Foreign Trade & Economic Development. China. Economics. International Relations. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The Chinese government's new "openness" policy to stimulate economic growth is examined. This policy welcomes Westerners, rehabilitates previously disgraced native "capitalists" & provides incentives for overseas Chinese businessmen to come home to new luxury accommodations. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 21: The Open Door Policy. China. Economics. International Relations. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. Joint ventures between China & foreign companies are transforming communists into capitalist entrepreneurs & consumers, & accelerating Western influence in the cities. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 22: Introduction to Chinese Arts & Literature. China. Art-History. Literature, Middle And Far Eastern. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In this segment, Western techniques & Chinese "soul" in artistic expression are explored in the aftermath of the Cultural Revolution. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 23: Intellectuals & the State. China. Civil Rights. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The Cultural Revolution sought to control or silence artistic expression in China, but the Chinese tradition of artists motivated from within by an absolute ideal, not by outside forces, has prevailed despite imprisonment & death threats. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 24: Traditional Chinese Science. China. Science-General. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. The Chinese view of the natural world - the link between heaven, Earth & humans - & the concept of "Ying" & "Yang" has greatly influenced how they use the science & technology of the contemporary world. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 25: Technological Advances in Contemporary China. China. Technology. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. For thousands of years the Chinese have kept detailed records of personal observations on natural phenomenon - such as earthquakes - that provide details on the earth's energy. But today there are lasers, fusion reactions & nuclear bombs in China that reflect a new respect for the importance of Western science in a country that seeks its place as a world power. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

The Chinese No. 26: Facing the Future: China Approaches the 21st Century. China. History, Far Eastern. 30 mins. (C). Group, Broadcast. Hosted by Mike Chinoy. In this final program, the events at Tiananmen Square are analyzed, with commentary offered on the probable future that awaits China in the wake of the bloody clash between reformers & hard-line Communists. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS. $49.95; pap., stu. ed. $39.95.

Christianity & Islam. Color. 60 mins. mins. CC Video Released Apr. 2004. Based on the best-selling book, IS THE FATHER OF JESUS THE GOD OF MUHAMMAD? by Dr. Timothy George.Words unfamiliar to most Americans are now heard daily on the evening news: jihad, Islam, Allah, Quran, fatwa, imam, ummah, Ramadan. Today, there are approximately seven million Muslims, and more than 13,000 mosques in North America. Now that Muslims are our neighbors, how do we talk to them about Christ? What do Muslims think about Jesus? Which beliefs do we share in common with Muslims and where do we differ from them? Do we worship the same God they worship? Is the Father of Jesus the God of Muhammad? Noted theologian, best-selling author, editor, and Dean of Beeson Divinity School at Samford University, Dr. Timothy George, teams with T N Mohan, producer-director of the award winning films, Hanged on a Twisted Cross, Here I Stand, For One English Officer, to answer these and other in this visually rich four-part TV series. Dr. George is dean of Beeson Divinity School of Samford University and an executive editor of Christianity Today.The series avoids the angry condemnation of all Muslims on the one hand, or a compromising of Christian truth-claims on the other. Muslim views are stated fairly and objectively from Muslim scholars who appear in the series. The programs set forth basic and foundational differences between Christianity and Islam and the implications for how we understand God, Christ, and the meaning of salvation.Four 25-minute programs1. The Tenets of Islam2. The Trinity3. The Bible and the Incarnation4. The Cross and Salvation32-page study guide included. Vision Video. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-56364-798-7(2), UPC: 727985006796) $39.99.

A Christmas Family Tragedy: A Southern Documentary [Pre-Release Edition]. Color and B&W. 75 mins. (English). Video Released Dec. 2006. Produced by Break of Dawn Productions. Not so much a 'who dunnit' as much as a 'WHY?!,' 'A Christmas Family Tragedy' explores the enduring mystery of the Lawson family tragedy that has captured people's fascination for over 75 years. On Christmas Day 1929, respected family man and tobacco farmer Charlie Lawson killed his wife and 6 of his 7 kids before commiting suicide, leaving everyone to wonder how such a horrible thing could happen in the heart of Appalachia. The film examines the relationship of the community to the tragedy, from the time of the murders all the way to present day. Ultimately, events leading up to the tragedy are linked to similarities with the current epidemic of domestic violence afflicting communities everywhere. Break of Dawn Productions. DVD. Circles. (1994). Mathematics-General. 20 mins. (Mathematical Eye Ser.). (YA). Directed by Shanti Thakur. A circle may be defined as a line with all of its points the same distance from a central point. The implications of this definition are both varied & useful. Circles are found in everyday life, in both natural & man-made objects. A knowledge of how circles work can help solve many real-life problems. Viewers will learn what a circle is & how the concepts of circumference, radius & diameter are related to a circle. A discussion of pi leads to an understanding of why it is useful to know how to determine the dimensions of a circle. United Learning. VHS. (Order #: 4751) $195.00; Laser. $129.00.

Citizens. (1986). 58 mins. Video Released Jul. 2003. Directed by Richard Adams. This video portrays human dimensions of Poland's Solidarity movement in 1980-81 that were obscured by Cold-War rhetoric: the efforts of workers, artists and intellectuals who joined together to create a thriving civil society within a totalitarian state. Solidarity activists describe how they learned that to protect their own interests they had to fight for the interests of Polish society as a whole. Their self-governing trade union won the trust and support of virtually all segments of society by providing the only available channel for the local grass-roots initiatives, open debate, and democratic action that ultimately led to non-violent systemic change in Poland and beyond. The Clay Bird. Orig. Title: Matir Moina. 98 mins. (YA). Age: 12-UP. (gr. 7 up). Broadcast, Cable, CCircuit, Public performance, Home. NR. Video Released Sep. 2006. Directed by Tareque Masud. Produced by Catherine Masud. Screenplay by Tareque Masud. A visually stunning, culturally fascinating, politically timely film based on the director's own childhood, The Clay Bird has been called one of the most important works to come out of the Muslim world. Set against the backdrop of Pakistan's turbulent period in the late 1960s, a young family is ripped apart by religious beliefs and the approaching civil war. Anu, a shy young boy from rural East Pakistan (now Bangladesh) is sent away by his father Kazi, an orthodox Muslim, to a Madrasah. Far from his family and the warmth of his region's vibrant Hindu festivities, Anu struggles to adapt to the Islamic school's harsh monastic life.As the political divisions in the country intensify, a split develops between moderate and extremist forces within the Madrasah. In the village, these same tensions create a growing divide between the stubborn Kazi and his increasingly independent wife, Ayesha. Touching upon themes of religious tolerance, cultural diversity, and the complexity of Islam, The Clay Bird has universal relevance in today's world. Milestone Film & Video. DVD. "The Collector of Bedford Street" is an Academy Award nominated short documentary that follows Larry Selman, the filmmaker's 60 year old neighbor. A community activist and fundraiser with developmental disabilities, Larry raises thousands of dollars for charity every year while he lives at thepoverty level. Because of Larry?s 20 years of service to his neighborhood, the communitycreated a supplemental need adult trust fund for him. This was the first time that a group,rather than an individual?s family did this. The film humanizes the story behind the abstractstatistics of mental retardation, revealing how a community builds tolerance and understanding. New Day Films. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-57448-093-1(6)).

Colombian Love: A Shai Kannot Film. Color. 96 mins. (Hebrew, Subtitled: English). Video Released Aug. 2006. Featuring Mili Avital, Itay Barnea, Assi Cohen, Nir Levy. Colombian Love is a hit comedy about three friends trying to bridge the gap between love, lust, and marriage. Omer (Nir Levy) is newly married and happy - or so he thinks - until talk of having a baby sets his nerves on edge. Meanwhile, Uri (Assi Cohen) is caught between the love of his life, Tali (Mili Avital - "The Human Stain," "Stargate"), and a domineering father who play tug-of-war with his heart. Finally, Zidane (Itay Barnea) is a free-spirited ladies' man who contradicts his own "hit and run" philosophy when moonstruck by an old Colombian flame. Their dilemmas form a compelling, witty look into the different faces of the Israeli male attitude toward love and relationships. Sisu Home Entertainment, Inc. DVD. The Colonists. (1991). Agriculture. Science-Environmental Studies. Forests. 16 mins. (Decade of Destruction Ser.: Classroom Version). (YA). Age: 11-17. (gr. 6-12). Produced by Adrian Cowell. The colonists who invaded the rainforest in huge numbers in the 1980's are mostly small farmers forced off their land in other parts of Brazil by increasing mechanization & the economics of cash cropping for export. When they reached the state of Rondonia they were given roughly 175 acres of virgin forest free of charge on condition that they cleared the land. This led to deforestation on a massive scale. But the tragic irony is that once the trees have been cut down the soil is so poor that many colonists were forced to abandon their land after just a couple of years. Bullfrog Films, Inc. The Coming Great Thirst: That Astonishing Day Just Ahead When Water Shall Be No More. (1999). Prophecy. Color. 62 mins. G. Made-for-TV. Video Released Sep. 1999. Texe Marrs, Wanda Marrs. Contribution by Colby Collier, Michelle Delgado, James Lundeen. Three million in Sydney, Australia are forced to bail their drinking water with deadly parasites. Ten million in Africa are afflicted with "river blindness" from tainted water. Over one hundred people in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, are dead & over 400,000 violently ill from toxins infecting drinking water. These staggering events are already reality - but is the worse yet to come. The Bible prophesies a horrendous "Great Thirst," a time when oceans and rivers will turn blood-red & fish & sea-life will be poisoned. Texe Marrs presents stunning, new information about these destructive water disasters. He proves that the "Great Thirst" has begun, with water shortages becoming more & more commonplace. He also shows how, even as millions die from water shortages & suffer in misery from water-borne illnesses, super-rich, global conspirators will reap huge profits. RiverCrest Publishing. VHS. Commodities. Color. 60 mins. mins. Video Released Nov. 2005. Instructed by Mike Rocca. From the MTA Education Seminar 2005 - Advanced CMT TopicsPolish your CMT exam skills by hearing from the experts in the toughest exam areasOur Advanced CMT Topics track is designed for candidates in the CMT Program and recent graduates. This track covers seven topics with which candidates tend to have the most difficulty, particularly on the CMT Level 3 essay exam. The presentations cover three of the most complex topics:Japanese candle charting, point & figure charting and Elliott Wave Principle, all taught by practitioners. These areas seem to give candidates the most difficulty on the exams, so an hour with the experts should prove to be a valuable education. The presentations on equities, foreign exchange, commodities and currencies are taught by individuals whose careers are dedicated to analyzing these markets. Many CMT candidates only focus on one of these markets; these sessions are designed to get candidates up to speed on analyzing markets with which they may not be familiar.Altogether, these seven sessions are designed to give attendees insights into how technical analysis is applied in the real world. As well, these sessions are designed to be the perfect preparation for the essay questions on the CMT Level 3 exam which covers each of these areas. The insights of the practicing technicians who lead these sessions are representative of those insights required to pass the exams. These sessions were designed with CMT candidate feedback in mind. Often, candidates who spend their work day analyzing one market or primarily utilizing one technique, have a difficult time shifting gears to address all of the markets and techniques covered by the CMT Program. Marketplace Bks., Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-59280-218-0(4)) $79.95.

The Composers. Art-History. Music-History And Criticism. 55 mins. (Montparnasse Revisited Ser.). Video Released Apr. 1994. Georges Auric, Pierre Bertin, Jean Cocteau, Jacques Fevrier, Darius Milhaud, Francis Poulenc, Germaine Tailleferre, Virgil Thompson, Jean Wiener. Directed by Matthew Reinders. Contribution by Jean-Marie Drot. In 1916, The Group of Six exploded on the Montparnasse music scene. Led by Jean Cocteau, 'Les Six' included Darius Milhaud, Arthur Honegger, Francis Poulenc, Germain Tailleferre, Louis Durey & George Auric & their 'godfather' Erik Satie. Informal concerts, which accompanied exhibitions by artists like Picasso, Matisse, Modigliani & Kisling drew large audiences who flocked to the studio salon in the rue Huyghens. Later the scene transferred to an Alsatian bar, Le Gaillat & then the Le Boeuf Sur le Toit where the Saturday evening concerts attracted everyone who was anyone in artistic circles. Consciousness & Truth or Wisdom? Integrating Different Windows on Mind & Body. (1999). Science-General. Psychology. Color. (Science & Consciousness Ser.). Made-for-Video. Video Released Jun. 1999. Christian de Quincey. This presentation covers three important questions underlying current debates in the science & philosophy of consciousness: "Truth or Wisdom?" - can we integrate radically different worldviews on the mind body problem? "How to Study Consciousness?" - through first-person experience, through second-person relationship, or through third-person brains? "Consciousness All the Way Down?" - how far back does consciousness go? Every world view expresses some deep truth - & is in error only if it claims possession of the whole truth. That is, there is probably a kernel of uncommon truth in every worldview - whether scientific materialism, spiritual idealism, mind-body dualism, or panpsychism - & the task of honest philosophers is to uncover such truths. The task of great philosophers is to find how these uncommon truths cohere in a common reality. Message Co., The. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-57282-151-4(5)) $24.95.

The Consequences of Touring. (1989). Dance, Classical-How-To Dance, Popular-How-To. Color. 30 mins. (Eye on Dance & the Arts Ser.: No. 292). David Parsons, Paul Zaloom. Hosted by Celia Ipiotis. This issue-driven series chronicles over a decade of dance & arts figures. Propelled by lively discussions, each program documents cutting-edge, established & historical voices. Photographs, video tape excerpts of performances & demonstrations enhance each segment's visual content. Program 292 examines constructive approaches to touring which drains creative resources but replenishes financial reserves. Arc Videodance. VHS. $99.00.

Consequences vs. Punishment. (1983). Child Care And Parenting 30 mins. (Developing Discipline Ser.). Recognition of punishment & the establishment of natural or logical consequences. Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln, GPN. VHS, Set. (Order #: E35) $39.95; pap., stu. ed. (Order #: E35) $21.00.

Conservation: Energy & Matter. Science-Physics. Careers. 15 mins. (Starfinder Video Ser.). (J). Age: 11-UP. (gr. 6 up). Film Ideas, Inc. VHS, Incl. written project & career profile. $89.00.

Conservation & Energy Alternatives: Powering the Future. 30 mins. (YA). Video Released Jan. 2001. Produced by MacNeil/Lehrer Productions. Films Media Group. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-4260-9(4)) $69.95.

Conservation & Energy Alternatives: Powering the Future. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-4213-4051-7(8)) $69.95.

Conservation & Our Forests. (1966). Science-Environmental Studies. Forests. Color. 15 mins. (J). AIMS Multimedia. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-8068-8718-0(4), Order #: 8718) $39.95.

Conservation Laws. Science-Environmental Studies. Science-Biology. 27 mins. (Simply Science Ser.). (YA). Using the specific examples of van Helmont, Lavoisier, & Joule, learn how the scientific method leads researchers to propose a hypothesis, design an experiment, record observations & draw conclusions. Use physical & biological systems to investigate the physical & chemical aspects of kinetic & potential energy. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8826) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation Laws. (1998). Science-Physics. Science-General. 27 mins. (Simple Science Ser.). CC (YA). Age: 14-17. (gr. 9-12). Introduces the Conservation Laws. Using the specific examples of van Helmont, Lavoisier, & Joule, students learn how the scientific method leads researchers to propose a hypothesis, design an experiment, record observations & draw conclusions. When sufficient data supports a single thesis, it can be considered a scientific law. United Learning. VHS, K-12 Single Campus; incl. tchr's. guide, set of Blackline Masters. (ISBN: 978-1-56007-821-0(9), Order #: AG10724VA) $95.00.

Conservation Laws & Fundamental Forces. Science-Physics. 60 mins. (Mechanical Universe - High School Adaptation Ser.: Quad II). (YA). Includes: Conservation of Energy, Conservation of Momentum, Angular Momentum & The Fundamental Forces. RMI Media Productions, Inc. VHS, Incl. instr's. guide. (Order #: MU-Q2) $75.00; 3/4" U-Matic, Incl. instr's. guide. (Order #: MU-Q2) $87.00.

Conservation of Energy: Energy Conservation. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 1). (YA). Analyzes the transformation of gravitational potential energy to kinetic energy using algebraic & graphical means. The motion of mass on a spring, a bungy jump & an athlete on a trampoline provide the data for detailed analyses that support the principle. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8658) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Energy: Energy Transformation. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 1). (YA). Uses the work-energy theorem to solve problems involving a change of gravitational potential energy to mechanical kinetic energy & the work done against friction. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8659) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Energy: Work & Energy. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 1). (YA). Elevators, escalators & an amusement park ride illustrate mechanical energy transformations & provide data for students to calculate the work done & power developed. Examines athletic activities illustrating the principles of work, power & energy, & analyze data obtained from an air table. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guides. (Order #: 8657) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guides. $195.00.

Conservation of Mass. (1986). Science-Physics. Color. 12 mins. (Physical Science & You Ser.). (YA). Hosted by Tom Weyburn. The law that "Matter can neither be created nor destroyed" is demonstrated & related to Albert Einstein & The Institute for Advanced Study. Phoenix Films & Video. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7919-7916-7(4)); Beta.

Conservation of Mass: An Inquiry. (1986). Science-Physics. Color. 14 mins. This inquiry film leads students to conclude that mass, except for that mass which is converted to energy, cannot be created or destroyed. Phoenix Films & Video. VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7919-7313-4(1)); Beta.

Conservation of Momentum: Collinear Momentum. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). The biathlon provides the context for investigating the law of conservation of momentum in the laboratory & on location. Identifies types of collisions in which momentum is conserved: explosion, hit & stick, & hit & rebound. Develops an appropriate quantitative problem-solving strategy for each. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8661) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Conservation of Momentum & Energy. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). Explores the physics of a soccer game, a projectile spring & a ballistic pendulum. Problem solving & combining many physics ideas into one solution is emphasized. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8665) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Elastic & Inelastic Collisions. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). Montage of sports images leads students to recognize most collisions as inelastic. Uses criteria of conservation of kinetic energy for elastic collisions to solve for an unknown quantity in several examples. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8664) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Momentum - Vector Addition. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). Explores the conservation of momentum in two dimensions on location at a curling rink & in the laboratory with an air table. Uses orthogonal components to make two-dimensional analysis uniform. Applies the law in two dimensions to the analysis of an automobile accident. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8662) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Momentum & Impulse. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). Gathers information from a vehicle-safety expert & a self-defense intructor to use in an exploration of the concepts of momentum & impulse. Teacher-guided analyses relate additional demonstrations of the principles. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8660) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Risk-Benefit Analysis. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). In the process of exploring benefits & risks in personal safety equipment, students develop a generic assessment model, which is used to reach personal decisions regarding the use of bicycle helmets. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8666) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Momentum: Two-Dimensional Collisions. Science-Physics. 29 mins. (Physics: A World in Motion Ser.: Cluster 2). (YA). Explores the concept of conservation of momentum in two dimensions in the context of fireworks, bumper cars, open pit mining, & within the isolated system of an air table. United Learning. VHS, Single campus, incl. student activity guide. (Order #: 8663) $95.00; VHS, Multiple campus, incl. student activity guide. $195.00.

Conservation of Ntrl Resources. 104 mins. (YA). Video Released Jan. 2000. Produced by Discovery Communications Inc. Films Media Group. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-7365-6854-8(9)) $159.95.

Conservation of Orbital Symmetry. Science-Chemistry. Color. 30 mins. American Chemical Society. VHS. (Order #: VL005) $60.00.

Conservation of Rare Trees. (1992). Science-Environmental Studies. Plants. Color. 25 mins. (Spirit of Trees Ser.: Episode 6). Public performance. Directed by J. Edward Milner. Hosted by Dick Warner. Examines the threatened survival of rare trees, the importance of preserving them, techniques to do so and the activities of botanists in several species recovery programs. Cinema Guild, The. VHS. $195.00, Rental 50.00.

Conservation of Vital Resources. Science-Environmental Studies 30 mins. (Living Environment Ser.). This lesson emphasizes the importance of proper use of our vital resources. Maintenance, protection, management, & conservation all serve as major points in this lesson. RMI Media Productions, Inc. VHS. (Order #: TLE-11) $59.95; 3/4" U-Matic. (Order #: TLE-11) $71.95.

Conservation on Your Own, 8 cass.; set. (1990). Agriculture. 55 mins. National Technical Information Service, U.S. Dept. of Commerce. VHS. (Order #: AVA18882VNB1AIF) $60.00.

The Conservative Resurgence. (1991). Political Science. History, American. 30 mins. (America in Perspective: U. S. History since 1877 Ser.). Examines the reasons for the growing conservative trend in American politics during the late 1970's & 1980's & assesses the initial results of that trend. RMI Media Productions, Inc. VHS. (Order #: AIP-23) $99.00.

The Conservatives. Political Science. History, American. Color and B&W. 88 mins. Public performance. Contribution by Jeane Kirkpatrick, William F. Buckley, Jr., Barry Goldwater, Ronald Reagan, Milton Friedman, Clare Boothe Luce, Paul Weyrich, Norman Podhoretz. The rise of the Conservative movement in America from the 1940s to the height of the Reagan Era. Films Media Group. VHS. (Order #: DMF2760) $89.95.

Conserving America Vol. 1: Champions of Wildlife. (1994). Science-Environmental Studies. Animals. Nature And Wildlife. Color. 58 mins. (YA). Made-for-Video. Narrated by Mason Adams. This program criss-crosses the USA focusing on a series of environmental challenges: endangered animals, agriculturally & historically significant rivers that remain unprotected by government legislation; the coastline, ravaged by erosion & pollution; & the wetlands - one of the earth's most important ecosystems - rapidly disappearing due to over-development. Cops vs. Thugs. (1975). Color. 100 mins. (Japanese, Subtitled: English). Video Released Jun. 2006. Ken Takakura. Featuring Bunta Sugawara. It's 1963 and the Kurashima City yakuza underworld has narrowed to two warring clans. The Kawade gang uses political influence to legitimatize their rackets, while the Ohara group shares an uneasy alliance with corrupt local cops. But when Boss Ohara initiates a bold waterfront land-grab, the precarious balance between gangsters, police, and politicians tips towards a bloodbath. "Drop dead, it'll clean the city," growls the Violence Squad's Detective Kuno to a group of Kawade assassins en route to a night club massacre. But Kuno's own hands are not spotless. Torn between his childhood connections with a yakuza kingpin, mounting pressure from reformer superiors, and the trigger happy gun-lust that led him to the police force in the first place, Kuno occupies the eye of Cops vs. Thugs' full-force hurricane of ferocious action. Coolly supplementing the body count on both sides, Kuno is a quick-triggered pilgrim in a world where, "gangsters and cops are the same. They both respect codes and laws." From an impromptu precinct men's room conjugal visit to a bicycle-mounted beheading, Cops vs. Thugs sneaks scathing social critique inside a blood-spattered soufflé of audacious photography and grisly violence, garnished with Toshiaki Tsushima's wah-wah driven score. Kino on Video. DVD. (UPC: 7 3832904682 8) $24.95.
